

A watercolor illustration of various flowers, including large pink roses and smaller carnations, with green leaves and stems. The flowers are scattered around the central text, creating a decorative border.

*Love is patient,
love is kind.
It does not envy,
it does not boast,
it is not proud.
It does not dishonor others,
it is not self-seeking,
it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices with the truth.
It always protects,
always trusts,
always hopes,
always perseveres.*

1 Corinthians 13:4-7
